The grandeur and beauty of a 100+year old house, with the amenities and obvious attention to detail provided by a family who has loved and truly lived in it. Feel the strength and construction & warmth of the very few families who have owned it this past century. Park your car in the private parking, behind the house, and walk 2 blocks to the final leg of the downtown greenway, which will provide you with lovely outdoor bike/walking scenery on your way to "First Fridays", December's tree light...

Lisa's house was a great fit for our business trip. Everyone had a comfortable bed, the dining room sat all of us and it was extremely convenient to downtown. Would recommend!
