

for his brother. The usher was Hersh Grinter of Akron.

After the reception in the church social hall Mr. Bolles and his bride went to the Allegheny Mountains in Pennsylvania.

The couple will live in New

MRS. CHARLES D. BOLLES
—Pongracz

Pennsylvania Honeymoon

Marie Sellars Weds Alan Anthony Horak

Marie Antoinette Sellars and Alan Anthony Horak were married in St. Martha Catholic Church by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Carl E. Frey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sellars, 568 Patterson av., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Horak, 3043 Oak Ridge dr., Silver Lake.

The bride's gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta, with Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves, had a full skirt extending into a train of ruffles of lace and net.

She wore a veil of illusion caught to a crown of pearls and rhinestones and carried a white orchid with stephanotis attached to a white lace fan.

Mrs. Marie Kuntz was matron of honor and flower girl was Marianne Horak, sister of the groom. Bridesmaids were Karen Hickman, Kathryn Graci, Gerry Sellars and Peggy Ringler.

George Locher was best man. Ushers were James Umbaugh, Don Dewey, Virgil Kuntz and Thomas Jones. Tommy Sellars, nephew of the

The Rev. Harold Willman officiated at the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lichtblau of Jefferson and the son of Mrs. Grace Nichols, 750 Stow st., Kent, and the late Mr. Nichols.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in white lace and net. She carried white gladioli, baby breath and pink roses.

Mrs. Ann Barnhart was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Kay Sexton and Shirley Pouttu.

Robert C. Ufert was best man and ushers were Ebb Garrett and Clifford W. Walters.

Following their Canadian wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Kent.

groom, served as junior usher and Billy Sentelik, cousin of newlyweds will make their home at 292 Talbot av.

Plan Spring Ceremony

Barbara Evans To Wed Louis J. Towne III

Mr. and Mrs. John Glyndwr Evans of 283 Canton rd. announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jo, to Louis Jefferson Towne III, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Towne, 760 Canton rd.

Both Miss Evans and Mr. Towne are graduates of Ellet High School. Miss Evans received her degree from Heidelberg College where she affiliated with the Philaleathean Literary Society. She is a former teacher at Roosevelt Grade School in Springfield Twp. and Kenmore High School.

She is assistant director of the neighborhood department of the Akron YWCA.

Mr. Towne received his engineering degree from University of Akron where he affiliated with Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. Upon graduation from University of Akron he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad before serving two years with the Air Force.

He received a master's degree from Stanford University. He is employed by Rubbermaid Inc. of Wooster.

A Spring wedding is planned.

QUICK'S FINE BARTLETT PEARS NOW READY!

WEALTHY APPLES FRESH PRUNE PLUMS

QUICK ORCHARDS

ON ROUTE 8
3 1/2 miles north of State Rd. Shopping Center